The First Powerpuff Girl

The story begins a long time ago when Professor Utonium was a family guy. He had a wife which name remains unknown, a son named Ken Kitazawa and a little robotic dog named Pichi which Professor Utonium has created to take care of Ken while Professor and Miss Utonium went out to enjoy of the night. Utonium and all his family traveled to Tokyo City, so Utonium and his wife could keep working in the experiment of create "The Perfect Little Girl". This experiment was originally Miss Utonium's idea. She wanted to create something than would change the world and Utonium was agree with his wife in anything. They would work together no matter the consequences and if something came wrong, they would face it together. Once than Professor Utonium arrived to Japan, He began to keep working in this experiment. He used the same ingredients that created the 3 little girls we know today. Sugar, Spices and everything nice. But this time, Utonium didn't use the Chemical X. Because before that, he had create other chemicals with the words A, B, C, D, E, F, G, etc. He used every one of them, but no one has given any result. Utonium kept trying until use Chemical W. That was the last chemical Professor Utonium used before Chemical X.

Once the mix was ready, he added just one bit in the mix of The Perfect Little Girl. Utonium was afraid, because he didn't know if this chemical would work and he decided to try it anyway. He and his wife waited for just some seconds to see if this time it would work. But nothing happened. Utonium began to lose any hope and he started to believe that this chemical would be another failure. But once he turned, a white light appeared from the nowhere. A big explosion pushed the Professor violently against the wall. His wife, for luck far away from the explosion, she walked directly to his dear husband to see if he was all right. She helped him to stand up and then she said:

-My dear, Are you okay?

-Yes, I'm fine. - Utonium said while he was massaging his head.

And when he turned back to see where that light came from, he saw something really amazing. From the mixture had risen some kind of creature. A creature with big head, big purple eyes, no fingers in her hands, long dark pink hair, big triangle form earrings in both ears and a clear blue flower in her head. Professor Utonium with the eyes wide open, he thought: "Can this be possible?", "I have finally created The Perfect Little Girl?". The girl inside the cooking pot where the mixture had been elaborated, began to take fly in the air and she came down to the floor. She walked right to Utonium and his wife and they didn't know what to say about it. The girl looked around asking herself where she was and then she looked at Utonium and his wife and the girl said:

-Where am I?

-In my lab. - Utonium said.

-Who are you? - Asked the little girl.

-I'm Professor Utonium.... and this is my wife.

-Are you my parents?

Utonium didn't answer, but the little girl knew exactly who they were. So she walked right to them with a very cute look. Miss Utonium walked to her gave her a hug and she said to her in the ear:

-Yes, we are your parents.

Miss Utonium smiled and she said:

-We did it, my dear. We did it.

Professor Utonium smiled too. They had finally created The Perfect Little Girl, such as they always had dream. In that same day, the whole family made a party giving to the little girl a welcome to this world. The girl was very happy with the presents and her first gift was a plushy pony. She ran to Miss Utonium, giving her a sweet and loving hug. Then she turned her look to Ken, because that was the first time she saw him. In that moment, Ken was 3 years old and he could not talk or walk. The little girl asked:

-He is my brother?

-Yes. He is your brother Ken. – Utonium said

Then she looked Pichi and she was charming with this robotic character. She ran to hug him believing it was another toy. Pichi delivered himself to the little girl's caresses, but one thing was missed. The little girl didn't know her name because she hadn't one. She realized nobody was calling her for her name and she asked for one name. Miss Utonium had a name for her new daughter.

-I think we can call her.... Bloodlust.

-Are you sure? – Utonium asked.

-Bloodlust was the name of a check mark of clothing that I used to wear. I told to myself if I have a daughter; I want to give her that name.

-All right, her name will be Bloodlust.

With pass of time, it could say this family had a normal life. But not as normal as it looked when Bloodlust discovered her powers. She could make things than other children could not do. She could run thousands of miles by second, she had super strength, she could shoot laser form her eyes and much more. In one occasion, Bloodlust was in the kitchen cutting an apple and accidentally, she cut herself. She was yelling of pain and Utonium ran see the injury. He went to search the case of first aid, but when he came back, the injury was gone. Utonium asked how could be that possible. Bloodlust showed it to him taking the knife and cutting herself in the hand. Utonium saw the blood coming out from the injury, but then the blood magically disappeared and the injury closed as if by magic. Bloodlust had the power to regenerate, what it meant she could suffer grave injuries and then health herself. Utonium and his wife thought as Bloodlust had these wonderful powers, she could use them for a good cause.

The couple took their daughter to the police department to show the police what Bloodlust was able to do. They received the welcome from a policeman known as Tenant Kaneda, one of the best policemen from Tokyo. When Kaneda asked which the reason of this visit was, Utonium said:

-My wife and I we have something than can be of a great help for the police department.

-Really? And what is it?

-Her. – Utonium said pointing Bloodlust.

Kaneda almost laughed after look the little girl.

-This little girl? Is some kind of joke? - He said.

-No. Show him, Bloodlust.

Bloodlust walked to Kaneda's desk which was bigger than her and she put it up in just one instant like a pencil. Kaneda was surprise and he didn't say anything for some minutes.

-How is that possible? - He said.

-I can do more than that. - Bloodlust said after put the desk down.

-This girl has wonderful powers. Just think what she can do. She can be of great help for the police. - Utonium said.

Kaneda wasn't pretty sure about this, but he accepted the idea of training Bloodlust. In the first training day, many cadets were laughing of see this little girl in the force. But the giggles turned in surprise expressions when Bloodlust showed them her incredible abilities. They had discover that Bloodlust had an incredible strength, she can ran as a bullet in the 30 kilometers running and in the shoot test, she showed her power of shoot laser through her eyes. Even in fight hand-to-hand, her strength was good enough to break some bones. She also had X-ray vision what could be very good for drug detection. Her first day as patrol girl began when she received a calling about a bank robbery. The thieves were using machine guns and Bloodlust made an unexpected entrance when she came through the roof. When the thieves shot, they couldn't believe than the injuries of the little girl just disappear. Bloodlust quickly removed the guns from the thieves' hands and crush them in their heads good enough to break the guns. Bloodlust used her strength to broke the thieves' legs and let them disabled. After deliver them, Bloodlust became in an excellent police girl in the next days. She didn't need a uniform; she was fine with her dress. It looked like she was going to be the heroin than everybody needed, but Bloodlust was going to have a rupture that would change her life forever.

Her rupture began after many days as police girl when she arrested a guy who found her in the park and he sit down by her side. She didn't know what this man wanted until he told her pervert stuffs and touched her of inadequate way. Bloodlust got scared and but when the individual tried of kissing her. She defended herself and gave him a loud blow in the jaw. After deliver him to the police, the record revealed that man was Matsuo Miyasaki. He was wanted for sexual abuse of minors and was sentence to life imprisonment. Bloodlust felt satisficed, but the things changed when after dark, she was walking peaceably by the streets when she passed through an electro domestic's store and she saw in the news by the TV's on the window, something very shocking. The rapist who Bloodlust arrested was freed by his brother that same day. Bloodlust could not believe that, but the worst part was when Miyasaki was put under arrest again and that was because he raped and killed a little girl of just 5 years old. Bloodlust felt very bad when a picture of the little girl with her parents was shown on the screen. Bloodlust showed in her eyes fear and melancholy. Tears were shed from her eyes and she felt hurt. A little girl just like her was rape and kill by this man who Bloodlust caught, but he was freed by his brother. Bloodlust reflected about all this and she though "put a person in jail for something bad he did and then let him go to do that again"? Bloodlust didn't like it at all and this information was like a stab in her chest. Something came out from inside her and she flew to the police station. When she arrived, she saw Miyazaky been escorting by 2 cops. Bloodlust landed before they take Miyazaky inside the station.

-Excuse me, officers. I want to talk with this man in private. - She said.

Bloodlust grabbed Matsuo and she took him to the sky. They were up in the air to a lot of miles from the ground. Miyazaky was scare and he didn't know what to say to the little girl. Bloodlust began to look Matsuo with a look in her eyes full of hate and disdain.

-Why you did it? Why? An innocent child like me. -She said.

-And what the fuck do you care? I have nothing else to say. - Matsuo said.

-And what about a "Good bye". - Bloodlust said looking him in his eyes.

Bloodlust let Matsuo free and let him fall into a great height. The fall went so loudly that Matsuo's head got fractured against the ground. Pieces of skull and brains were scattered in the ground. The cops got scare to see the dead body with his shattered head over a big red stain. Bloodlust was just for a moment in the sky contemplating the dead body and after be satisfied, she flew away from there. When the officers get impacted for what Bloodlust has done, they called everybody. The press, Kaneda, even Utonium. When Utonium received the calling, he couldn't believe what he was hearing. Bloodlust had murder a rapist. When Utonium went to see the scene, it was something he didn't want to believe. Utonium got scare to see the dead body and he said:

-It can't be. My little girl did this?

-It's hard to believe. - Kaneda said.

-But Bloodlust really did this?

-That is what the officers witnesses saw.

Professor Utonium was baffled; he didn't know what to say.

-How is this possible? – Utonium asked.

-I don't know. But this is wrong. We had explained to Bloodlust that we must never kill a criminal. At least that it be in self defense.

-Don't tell me she did this before.

-No. This is the first time than Bloodlust does something like this.

The people were so impacted for what Bloodlust has done and they called her to a lecture so she can explain why she killed Miyazaki. Bloodlust hadn't any doubt to go to give her speech. Miss Utonium watched in TV what Bloodlust did and the explanation she was giving.

-Bloodlust, why you killed Miyazaki? – A reporter asked.

-It was not worth the while to forgive his life. He tried to rape me and I sent him to the jail. But his brother liberated him and he committed another murder. If this guy lived or if they allowed him out again, he would for sure have hurt another innocent girl again. I couldn't let something like that happen, so I did what I think was right. – Bloodlust said.

-But Bloodlust, do you think that was the right choice? –Another reporter asked.

-There's one thing they taught me in my training days. We must never kill the people we put under arrest. Each human life is precious and it must be respected. We should never hurt a human being in spite of the crimes that he commits. But I realize that they are wrong with that. What purposes has arrest somebody if once they send him to jail, do they release him again in order to commit those acts again? I think something like that doesn't deserve forgiveness. Not even from the law. – Bloodlust said.

-What do you mean that the law must not forgive? – Another reporter asked.

-This law we have now in our city is unviable. If you ask of what law I'm talking about, I'm talking about the one of my own. Cuz as I'm a girl with superpowers and I keep this city save, I consider myself as the law and I will be from now on. – Bloodlust said.

Professor Utonium and his wife could not believe those words, but the troubles were just beginning if they didn't know. Bloodlust dared to go out by night patrolling the streets without rest. She came home just to take some sleep and eat something. And when she finished that, she went back out to the streets. But nothing of that were compare with the next events. Little by little it started to graduate a lot of calls of civilians saying that they have seen Bloodlust fighting with many thieves, murderers and homicides and she left them dying with grave injuries. When the police arrived to those scenes, they found many bodies of people with criminal records. Those people had many injuries and blows that disfigured their faces. The police was baffled, cuz they could not believe what they were seeing. Even some bodies had marks, laser burnings. Then they've thought that Bloodlust was making all this and that she wasn't obeying the law. Instead of sent this people to prison, she was slaughtering them.

The true troubles were unleashed when 2 cops caught Bloodlust in another scene that for her was justice. Bloodlust was flying in the sky and in an alley, she found an older man raping a little girl. Bloodlust went down and punch him in the head leaving him with a terrible hangover. The guy stood up with a headache, but Bloodlust didn't stop cuz with all her anger, she hit this man in the stomach and in the chest good enough to break his thoracic cage and the guy began to spit blood. But the most painful part was when Bloodlust hit him in his balls. So hard than the testicles exploded like balloons and the rapist fell in the ground with a horrible pain screaming in an unending agony. The police had fortunately arrived on the scene. They came out from the car, took their guns pointing to Bloodlust and talked to her.

-Freeze! ....Bloodlust, what do you think are you doing? – One of the cops said.

-This man was hurting that innocent girl. He must die. – Bloodlust said.

-Bloodlust, this is not the way. You don't have to do it. – Said the second cop.

-You didn't see what I saw. This son of a bitch doesn't deserve to live.

-Bloodlust! Don't do it!

But Bloodlust didn't hear them this time. She grabbed the rapist head and she began to press his skull.

-Bloodlust, please, stop or we gonna shoot! – Yelled one of the cops.

Bloodlust didn't listen and she kept pressing the rapist head until the eye balls jumped out from the skull. She squashed his head like a watermelon and the brains came out through the eye holes and nose with mucus mixed with blood. Even blood with hear wax from the ears. Bloodlust had murdered this rapist and his blood had sprinkled over her face. One of the cops was scare and he couldn't do anything. But the other one shot. The bullet perforated Bloodlust's head, but she didn't fell down. The bullet left a hole in Bloodlust's head and even it could look through it. But that hole closed in just an instant. Bloodlust turned to see the cops and find out who of them shot her. Bloodlust looked them with anger and the cops didn't move. Her look got them petrified. In 0 seconds, Bloodlust appeared in front of them face to face. Bloodlust removed the weapon to one of the officers and hit him with it. The other cop began to shoot to Bloodlust, but Bloodlust got down and although some bullets touched her, she took a glass bottle and broke it against the wall. Bloodlust still holded the bottle's neck and as the bottle was broken, it could be used as cutting object. Bloodlust got closer to the cop who was shooting her and she penetrated his head with the broken bottle. She penetrated him so deep that the points came out behind the head. The other officer was afraid and he didn't know what to do. He dragged quickly to take his gun that was in the ground cuz Bloodlust dropped it. Bloodlust turned and just when the officer took the gun and was ready to shoot her, Bloodlust took his arm and she twisted it. She broke his arm and the bone penetrated the flesh coming out to the outside. The officer yelled of pain and then, Bloodlust grabbed his head and crushed it against the wall. It was good enough to leave a rupture in the wall with blood stains and the officer's head was left completely fracture. Since then, Bloodlust had a conclusion: "Anybody who dares to defy me or threat me, will die".

That night, the police found the dead bodies of these officers. And of course, there was a camera that recorded everything of what happened there. Tenant Kaneda called Professor Utonium and Miss Utonium to show them the recording. They were shocked to see Bloodlust killing brutally a rapist and 2 cops that tried to stop her.

-This is not possible. – Miss Utonium said.

-I sorry. But I afraid this is real. – Kaneda said.

-But I don't understand. She would never be able of do something like that. – Utonium said.

-I sorry, but my officers are looking for her in this moment. They will try to stop her. – Kaneda said.

-Are you saying...they are going to kill her? – Miss Utonium asked looking Kaneda.

-I don't know. – Kaneda said after sigh. – We gonna try to get her, but I can't sure anything.

And the troubles became thousand times worse. All when a lot of patrols began to go after Bloodlust. Of course, Bloodlust didn't move back. She stood in the ground just where she was, receiving the officers visit. They stopped close to her and they got out of their cars with their guns aiming at Bloodlust.

-Bloodlust! You're under arrest. Put your hands in the air and get down! – One of the officers said to her.

Bloodlust didn't obey. She began to see the officers as a threat and she didn't doubt in attack. She used her laser vision to destroy the cars and provoke great explosions. Some cops came out from the flames burning alive yelling screams of terror. The officers began to shoot and Bloodlust dodged the bullets to a tremendous velocity. Bloodlust got closer to the cops that were close to her and she began to fight them. Using her super strength, she began to break their bones, spinal columns, leaving them disabled and even some cops she killed them breaking their skulls and twisting their necks. Even a blow in the chest was enough to provoke a heart stopping. A terrible battle was unleashed and Bloodlust was so strong and so powerful that no cop was a threat for her. Thousands of dead cops were found in many parts of Tokyo. All of them trying to get Bloodlust, but no one could and no one survived to tell it. In that moment, Kaneda and Utonium were thinking in what they should do. The conclusion for Kaneda was:

-I sorry, Professor Utonium. But there's nothing that we can do. Bloodlust must be stop by all means.

-But there must be some way of make her get in reason. – Utonium said worry.

-I've seen what she did. You've seen the dead bodies she left. Sorry, but your daughter has become in a killing machine and she must be destroyed. – Kaneda said.

Professor Utonium didn't know what to say. He was agreed that Bloodlust should be stop, but kill her..... It was something he didn't want to accept. Utonium though for a few minutes and he still didn't know what conclusion take.

-My dear, Kaneda is right. – Miss Utonium said.

She appeared just in that moment and Utonium look at her after hear her.

-Look what Bloodlust has done. Look in what she has become. Create her was a big mistake and we must finish her.

Utonium looked her with the eyes wide open and then he talked.

-Are you sure?

Miss Utonium remained in silence for a moment and the she answered.

-Yes. There's not another choice.

Utonium didn't want to kill Bloodlust, but seeing than there wasn't another choice, he had to accept it. Now the question was how to stop her? Utonium though a lot and then he spoke.

-May there's just one way.

That night, Bloodlust had returned home to eat something. The strangest thing for her was that the only ones in the house were Pichi and Ken. Of course, Pichi was taking care of Ken.

-Pichi, where is the professor? – Bloodlust asked to Pichi.

-He told me you must see him in Tokyo Nuclear Center. – Pichi said.

Bloodlust was asking to herself why Utonium want to see her in the Nuclear Center. It was something strange, but Bloodlust decided to go there to find him. She flew away from home to the Nuclear Center. Fortunately, there was nobody there. Bloodlust checked the entire place and no soul were seen. It seems like the place were evacuated and the journey took her to the section where there were found big acid containers. Bloodlust saw professor Utonium waiting for her in a bridge over the containers. Bloodlust flew directly to him, stood in front of him and talked to him.

-Professor, what are we exactly doing here?

-Bloodlust, this must finish. Don't keep doing this. You must stop.

-But you told me I was made to make this city a better place and that is what I'm doing.

-But you had murder a lot of policemen. I don't bring you up to do something like that.

-Those policemen are traitors. Why put people on the jail to then let them out? Those policemen are wrong in everything, but I'm right.

-Please, Bloodlust. Stop. Let's go back to Townsville and this time let's start everything over again. This time I'll not bring you up to be a heroine. I just want we be a family. – Utonium said begging.

-I sorry, dad. I will not leave. This cops had rose against me and I have to eliminate them too. This city must be under my protection, so I will stay here. – Said Bloodlust with a very firm tone.

-Please, my child. Come back with me. – Utonium kept begging.

Bloodlust hugged Professor Utonium and then she whispered in his ear.

-No. I will stay here.

Professor Utonium remained in silence for a moment hugging his daughter.

-This is the choice you want to take. - Utonium asked to her.

-Yes. – She said.

Utonium kept hugging his daughter for a while.

-Forgive me, my child.

Bloodlust felt a sharp object perforating her stomach. She moved back and she saw a knife in Professor Utonium's hand. Bloodlust could not believe than her own father stabbed her. Miss Utonium and Kaneda appeared behind Bloodlust and they began to stab her with all their strength. The idea wasn't kill her with the stabbing, cuz it wouldn't work. The idea was stab her good enough to let her weak. She was stab 27 times and once than she fell down in pain and motionless, the three of them grabbed her to throw her in the acid container before she got health again. When they threw her, Bloodlust took Miss Utonium's left hand dragging her down. Professor Utonium held the right hand of his wife to not let her fall. He tried to get her up, but Bloodlust was starting to health.

-It's useless, let me go. – Miss Utonium said looking Professor Utonium at his eyes.

-What are you talking about? – Professor Utonium said.

-Bloodlust is healing. This must finish here. All this is my fault.

-No. That isn't true.

-Let me go. This must finish.

-But it supposes that we were going to make this world a better place as we promised.

-Well, you'll have to keep going without me.

Bloodlust was almost healed and she was close to take fly.

-Please, take care of Ken. – Miss Utonium said as a goodbye and she got lose.

Utonium could not keep holding his wife and she got lose from his hands. She fell with Bloodlust in the acid container. Professor Utonium yelled and cried for his wife and daughter. Their bodies were now dissolving in the acid. Utonium knelled and cried to hard as never before. Kaneda touched Utonium's back to calm him down.

-Easy. It's all over now. – Kaneda said.

Utonium didn't stop of crying and Kaneda remained by his side until he stopped crying.

After left Tokyo Nuclear Center, Utonium went back home and he went to his room where he used to sleep with his wife. He walked to the closet and opened it to save his apron. Then he saw something that called his attention. He saw a packet in the closet. He took it and opened it. The surprise for Utonium in that packet was a cage with a little monkey inside of it. Besides, there was a letter. Utonium took the letter and he began to read it.

"My dear husband

When you read this, it means I passed away. I didn't tell you before because I didn't want to get you worry, but 2 weeks ago, I was diagnosed with leukemia. The doctors said I have only 6 months of life. I wanted us to travel to Japan not just to keep working with our experiment, but to spend our last moments together. This monkey that comes with the letter is Jojo and he will be your new assistant after i leave. I know you will take care of him, because I don't want you feel alone. Neither Ken or Pichi. Now that I'm perished, I know that we made the promise of work in the creation of The Perfect Little Girl and that's why I want to make you know I'll let you Jojo to be your assistant from now on. My life time is expiring and I won't be able to keep helping you. But I want you keep Jojo as my last gift. I know it will be something hard keep working in the experiment without me. But promise me that you will keep working in the creation of The Perfect Little Girl. I have faith on you and I know you will have success. Never forget this promise and if you have success, I will be in heaven to see it. Please, never forget me.

I love you."

Professor Utonium put the letter down, looked Jojo for just some minutes and then he got to think than in spite of the fact that Bloodlust had become in a failed experiment, Professor Utonium decided to keep his promise on foot. Keep working in The Perfect Little Girl was the last wish of Miss Utonium and the Professor would keep working on it no matter what. He would keep trying until his last breath.

Kaneda was with him when they came back home and Kaneda saw Utonium coming down from the stairs with suitcases.

-Professor, where you go? – Kaneda asked.

-I can't stay here. Now that my wife is gone, there's not another reason to stay here at longer.

-But.... and your son? Ken?

-Make me a favor, Kaneda. I want you take care of Ken for me.

-What it means that? – Kaneda asked without understand what the Professor was trying to say.

-I will go back to Townsville. I don't want to stay here anymore.

Utonium felt something touching his leg. He looked down and he saw Pichi looking at him with sadness.

-Please, don't leave. – Pichi said.

Utonium knelled and talked him.

-I sorry. But I can't stay here.

Utonium had his reasons of why he wanted to go back to Townsville. Staying in that house with Pichi and looking into Ken's eyes, would make him remember his dear wife. The pain of Professor Utonium got stronger very time he thought about staying in Tokyo with Ken. So Professor Utonium made his next choice.

-I sorry, Pichi. But I will leave and I think I will never come back.

Pichi was too sad and his looking was good enough to make Professor Utonium cry again, but he tried to keep it in.

-Please, take care of Ken for me. You always took care of him every time I went out. I beg you take care of him from now on.

-But, Professor....

-Do it, it's an order and please, keep it – Utonium interrupted.

Pichi didn't want to obey that order, but he had to do it. He accepted it.

-Utonium, I will take care of Ken and Pichi, but just until you come back. – Kaneda said.

-Thank you, Kaneda. You are a good friend.

Professor Utonium gave his hand to Kaneda, took his suitcases and went out by the door. This time, he took a taxi that took him to the airport and Professor Utonium took the first flight to America. Professor Utonium went directly to his homeland taking the name of Tokyo as a painful memory quite similar to the bombs of Hiroshima and Nagasaki. A pain that professor Utonium would try to forget in the course of time. Professor Utonium went back to Townsville and he never went back to Tokyo to see Ken and Pichi again.

After the happening, the workers went back to Tokyo Nuclear Center, but after many years, the Center went to bankrupt and got close. 5 years passed and just in the bankrupt day, when the workers went back home and in just some weeks the place would be closed, the center was in absolute silence. But in the acid container where Bloodlust and Miss Utonium fell, a sound inside of it began to be heard. Sounded like punches. A rupture was open in the container and in just one second, it grew up and all the entire acid inside of the container went out. A viscous package also came out to the outside. It could not be noticed what it was that thing, but it began to move slowly. That black package stood up and emerging a doughy shape with white bones at sight and black burnings. The shape emerged from the viscous package and gave a horror scream. Walked away from the container slowly and the flesh textures began to reconstruct by itself. The burnings were disappearing, the flesh were emerging again from those burnings. Step by step the shape was taking its original form. It was already known what that thing was. It was Bloodlust who had resurrected once again from the acid that it should have killed her. Bloodlust came back, but this time she wasn't a little girl anymore. Now she had the body of a 13 years old girl. Bloodlust looked around asking herself where she was and what did happen. Only she noted something hanging her left hand. It was a skeleton hand. A hand made with human bones. That hand was the last remaining thing from Miss Utonium. Bloodlust recovered her memory and she remembered what did happen. She had fell in the acid, but that didn't kill her. It just put her to sleep deeply for 5 years. Bloodlust rose from the ground and she got close to a window to see everything with more clarity. It looked like nothing in Tokyo City had change. Then, Bloodlust looked at the moon shining at the top of the sky. Bloodlust let off a perverse and macabre smile and let out the following words:

-Daddy, I'm back.
